

UK Streetboard Nationals 08

13th December - Revolution Skatepark
Broadstairs/Kent

12pm-5pm

International Best Trick Contest
Pro Street/Mini - Am Street/Mini
Spectators - FREE

Info- www.streetboard-uk.com/Info@highland-streetboards.com/www.revolutionskatepark.co.uk

In association with -

Red Pen Magazine

Revolution

Dimension Streetboards

True Skool

RIDER PACK

Welcome to the UK Streetboard Nationals 08 rider pack, everything you need to know about this years contest. Whether you want to come and enter, or just come along to watch, it's all here. For riders travelling for abroad there are separat sections that you should take note of. Book everything early- even your train ride, as it will be cheaper.

If you plan to attend you must register interest, or if you have any questions, email Jay Nowman at: info@highland-streetboards.com

The Venue:

This years contest will be held at the newly refurbished Revolution Skatepark, in Broadstairs, Kent. It is easily accessed by rail and road, so no excuses not to turn up!

Travel

International Riders:

Fly into any of the London Airports. You can then take the train or Coach into central London. Accomodation details are below, make sure you book and stay in London as this is where we will hang out except fo rthe day of the contest. A return will cost £24.

We will be travelling from London to Broadstairs for the day only.

If you would like to book your train early go to www.thetrainline.com.

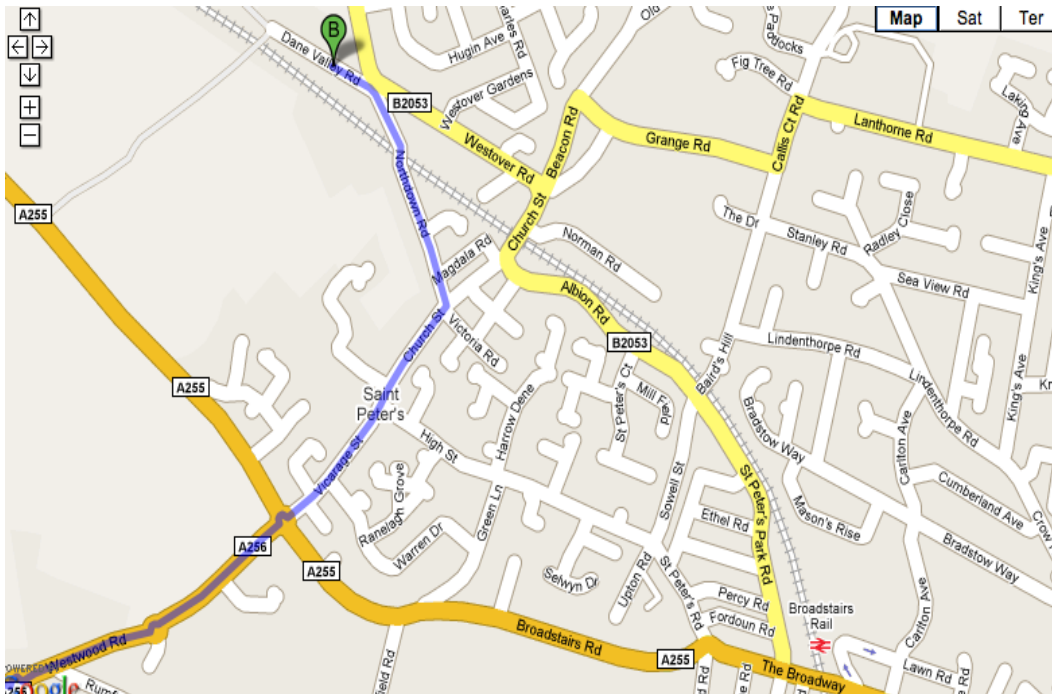

We will be taking the 0903 from London Victoria to Broadstairs.

On the return Journey we will be taking the 1828 to London Victoria.

RIDER PACK

Broadstairs can be reached by train from London's Charing Cross or Victoria. Return tickets are £24 each for a day return. If you would like to travel with the guys please see above in the international section. There are also many other routes that can be taken from all over the South-East.

By car you need to take the M2 then the A299, then the A256 to Broadstairs. Once in Broadstairs here is the map to get from the station, or the A256.

RIDER PACK

The Contest

The contest is open to all, whether from the UK or abroad. You may enter every section of the contest. We will have the following events:

Amateur Street & Pro Street

Each rider will get 2x 1 minute qualifying runs. At the end of the 1 minute you will get time to set up for one last trick. You will be judged on a mix of: Style, Technicality, Air and Line.

Your best run score will count. Only in the event of a tie will your second run be taken into account.

The top riders in each category will go into the finals. The finals will then start from scratch with each rider getting a further 2 x 1 minute runs.

Amateur Mini/Pro Mini

For each category this will be a jam session knock-out format. There will be 4 riders in each group, each getting a 12 minute jam session. After 6 minutes the judges will eliminate one rider. After 9 minutes another rider will be knocked out. Finally after 12 minutes the winner of the heat will be declared. The winner will progress to the final super group where the process will take place again. (times and group numbers subject to change).

UK Streetboard

Nationals 08

RIDER PACK

Best Trick.

Each rider will be given 3 attempts at a trick. If you don't land it, you get no score. Your best trick counts.

Schedule:

Registration: 11.30am-12.30pm

Amateur Street Qualifying: 12.30pm-1pm

Pro Street Qualifying: 1pm-2pm

Amateur Mini Contest: 2pm-2.30pm

Pro Mini Contest: 2.45pm-3.15pm

Am Street Finals: 3.30pm-3.50pm

Pro Street Finals: 4pm- 4.20pm

Best Trick Contest: 4.30pm-5pm

Prize Giving: 5.30pm

Afterparty (London) : 10pm-9am

UK Streetboard

Nationals 08

RIDER PACK

Accomodation

If you need to find somewhere to stay- we recommend these locations. They will be central enough for all activities.

<http://www.ashleehouse.co.uk/index.aspx>

<http://www.hostels.com/availability.php/HostelNumber.505>

After Party

We have yet to announce a venue, but it will be in London somewhere. We are lucky enough to be able to Join Sam Cooke in celebration of his 26th birthday, so you know it will be good.

Any Questions please contact Jay Nowman on info@highland-streetboards.com